Telling the Story of Jesus in a Synodal Way

The entire Church is on a Synodal Journey from October 2022. Those who are closely following the Church's teachings understand at least a bit of the theme 'Synod on Synodality and its process' which began at the diocesan level, walked through the Regional, National and paused at the Continental stage, after which the journey proceeds to the Vatican to be culminated at the 'Synod on Synodality' scheduled for October 2024. The Greek word Synodos implies, I have companions on the way of Evangelization and synodality is walking together!

The just concluded Conference of Catholic Bishops of India (January 24-30, 2023 at Bengaluru) reflected on the theme of the “Telling the Story of Jesus in the Context in a Synodal Way”. In short it underlined that ‘Synodality is for Evangelization’ and ‘Telling is Evangelization’. It is the ‘Telling and retelling the Good News’ and not in the air but in the context of India, and in its different cultural and social situations. I am sure that all of us at one time or the other experienced some kind of Good News like ‘50 percent discount on clothes, iPhones’, or ‘Family enjoying the news of their son or daughter getting a four-figure salary job’, etc. As the Church is by nature missionary (LG 1, AG 2), it is the Community, not the individual that shares the Good news. The phrase ‘In a Synodal way’ refers to our good relations ad intra and ad extra of the Church. Sharing the Good News implies that we are convinced that we have a better story than other faiths, religions, ideologies, etc. Evangelization is not repeating the gospels but having “Jesus Culture” with Cultural Quotient (CQ besides IQ, EQ) and walking with other cultures, other ethnic groups, open a new world, ‘a new heavens and a new earth’ to them!(Rev 21-22 Chs.).

Apostle Thomas to India

Early church tradition speaks of Christianity's spread eastward. The story goes that the doubted and reconfirmed Apostle Thomas came India. Christians in India to this day have a strong tradition that Thomas came to their land in 52 AD. When Marco Polo travelled through India in the thirteenth century and Vasco de Gama landed there in the late fifteenth century, they both found Christians continuing the liturgy of the ancient Syrian church. Hindu rulers and the Indian caste system had prevented extensive evangelism among the population, but the Malabar Indian Christians had been able to pass their beliefs to their own children for centuries.

CCBI Plenary Assembly XXXIV

Around 150 Bishops who attended the PA committed themselves to helping others know about Jesus in an “Indian way” through stories in a synodal way. The participants’ affirmed the message issued on January 30, 2023 i.e., the power of story-telling as an “authentic path” of dialogue in India. Antonio Cardinal Tagle the Pro-Prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization of the Peoples and the main resource person addressed on the meaning of the theme “Telling the Story of Jesus in Context: In the Synodal way.” He underlined that Indians can tell and retell Jesus’ story in words and deeds as the first disciples did, combining it with each one’s life story by “witnessing through action”, through service, compassion, community building, tolerance and sacrifice amidst the stories of various religious perspectives on conflicts and tensions.

This pastoral Plenary Assembly explored a unique methodology of evangelizing: Evangelizing through story-telling. We listened to story-telling of different commissions regarding families, youth, children and women, BECs, nature, liturgy, Bible, catechesis, etc. We heard perspectives from ecumenism and Inter-faith dialogue. Together we celebrated our faith and our life as disciples of Jesus through sharing, listening, praying, celebrating the Eucharist. The multiplicity of cultures and languages added light and colour to the celebration of our one common faith. How significant these are to the mission of evangelization in the present context of ethnic conflicts and religious tensions in India! The Story of Jesus was the unique thread, weaving all these life experiences into one grand narrative. All the colours, peoples, languages, cultures, values, religions, and arts of India's peoples formed one grand textile. Lord, how marvellous are your ways! How deep your designs! (Ps 92:5)

Telling the Story of Jesus in India

The world especially India is full of stories. Human life is unimaginable without stories. Stories tell us who we are and they link us with other peoples, all across Asia and even the world. Through them we explore life's deeper dimensions, including the mystery of our own being. Stories impact our life and our faith. They transform perspectives and values. They form community. Stories contain a hidden dynamism and transforming power, incalculably so when they emerge from experience. They are remembered much longer than lessons learned in school or books that are read.

Jesus, Marvellous Story Teller!

We were confirmed that Jesus was known as a story-teller. As a rabbi, a teacher, his favourite method of instruction was telling parables, insightful pictures that revealed the depths of God's Reign. Who does not know the parable of the Good Samaritan or the Prodigal Son? Jesus' parables challenge us with new possibilities in our relations with God and all our brothers and sisters. Many might think of Jesus as merely akin to the great Asian wisdom teachers, such as Confucius, Lao Tzu, Buddha, Jain, Krishna, Rama, etc. But more marvellously, we believe that Jesus is the God who became Man, sent by the Father. He is God's love story in the flesh - God's Incarnate Story. The Bishops recognized the many of the challenges found in Pope John Paul II's Ecclesia in Asia (EA 20): "narrative methods akin to Asian cultural forms are to be preferred. In fact, the proclamation of Jesus Christ can most effectively be made by narrating his story, as the Gospels do". He recommends following "an evocative pedagogy, using stories, parables and symbols so characteristic of Asian methodology in teaching" (EA 20g).

The local Churches in India especially in Telugu region can be faithful to the mandate of Christ's mission by telling and retelling the Jesus story. We seek to approach evangelization in an Indian way, an evocative way through stories, parables and symbols, a method so characteristic of Indian pedagogy. We implore Mary, the Star of Evangelization, to intercede for us that our hearts may remain on fire with love of Jesus her Son, whose story we shall tell and retell through words, deeds and the witness of our lives!

II. Holy Father's Intention: for Parishes

We pray that Parishes, placing communion at the centre, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.

III. Message of the Holy Father: 31st World Day of the Sick

“Take care of him”

Compassion as a Synodal Exercise of Healing

Earlier this week, the Vatican released Pope Francis's message for the 31st World Day of the Sick, celebrated every year on 11 February, liturgical memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes. The Holy Father's message is entitled: “Take care of him” – Compassion as a Synodal exercise of healing. In light of the Church's Synodal journey, Pope Francis invites “all of us to reflect on the fact that it is especially through the experience of vulnerability and illness that we can learn to walk together according to the style of God, which is closeness, compassion, and tenderness.”

Pope Francis tells us in his Encyclical Letter Fratelli Tutti that “we cannot be indifferent to suffering” (68), and he proposes that we read anew the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37). The condition of loneliness and abandonment of the sick in today's world only “takes a moment of our attention, of being moved to compassion within us, in order to eliminate it.” In seeking the help of another to care for the sick man, the Samaritan asks the innkeeper to “take care of him.” Only with the help, courage, and innovation of others in a “face-to-face encounter” can we organize care for the sick in a spirit of fraternity and resilience. Many healthcare workers, family members, and community volunteers are daily witnesses of this accompaniment and caring compassion.

The World Day of the Sick is an occasion to pray for individuals who are suffering, and to find concrete ways to draw nearer to them. Mindful of this call, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops recently published an open-source palliative care toolkit for parishes, families, and communities in order that they may deepen their understandings of illness, suffering, dying and death. Drawing on Catholic moral and pastoral theology, medical expertise, and the Compassionate Community model, the palliative care toolkit facilitates conversations and learning, grounded in the mercy and tenderness of the living Christ. Users of the toolkit are invited to organize group-based engagement according to the toolkit's four-module program so as to sustain and renew pastoral attention on the sick, lonely and abandoned. Learn more about Horizons of Hope, its training videos, facilitator guide, social media images, and take-home resources.

Pope Francis reiterates that we are called to learn “how to be a community that truly walks together, capable of resisting the throwaway culture.”

IV. Day of Consecrated Life (Feb. 2)

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church. Moral social and Laity's apostolate problems, numerous and often dramatic, are calling as Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life into question.

Whatever, the Vows impel them to keep alive in the world and the way of life which Jesus, the supreme Consecrated One and missionary of the Father for the sake of his Kingdom, embraced and proposed to his disciples & quote; (Vita Consecrata, n. 22; cf. Mt 4:18.22; Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:10:1; Jn 15:16). United to Christ in his consecration to the Father, they never cease to seek his face; we want to stay with him and, like the Samaritan woman of the Gospel, draw through him from the sources of living water, to quench their thirst with his word and rejoice in his presence.

We Congratulate all the Consecrated in the Diocese of Warangal and pray to the Lord 'for those consecrated to God by the vows of chastity, poverty and obedience that they may seek to live their baptismal promises more intensely and have the grace to persevere in their commitment to the Lord and serve with open hearts and willing spirits' by experiencing the support of the Church as they continue their growth in holiness and witness to Christ in Evangelization and Faith Formation especially in Warangal Diocese.

V. Feast of Presentation of the Lord (Feb. 2)

On Feast, we contemplate the Lord Jesus, whom Mary and Joseph bring to the Temple "to present him to the Lord" (Lk 2:22). This Gospel scene reveals the mystery of the Son of the Virgin, the consecrated One of the Father who came into the world to do his will faithfully (cf. Heb 10:5-7). Simeon identifies him as "a light for revelation to the Gentiles"

(Lk 2:32) and announces with prophetic words his supreme offering to God and his final victory (cf. Lk 2:32-35). This is the meeting point of the two Testaments, Old and New. Jesus enters the ancient temple; he who is the new Temple of God: he comes to visit his people, thus bringing to fulfillment obedience to the Law and ushering in the last times of salvation. It is interesting to take a close look at this entrance of the Child Jesus into the solemnity of the temple, in the great comings and goings of many people, busy with their work: priests and Levites taking turns to be on duty, the numerous devout people and pilgrims anxious to encounter the Holy God of Israel. The prophetic attitude of the two elderly people contains the entire Old Covenant which expresses the joy of the encounter with the Redeemer. Upon seeing the Child, Simeon and Anna understood that he was the Awaited One.

VI. Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes (Feb. 11) World of Day of Sick

Today the Church celebrates the memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes. In 1858, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a 14-year-old French peasant girl, St. Bernadette Soubirous. The first appearance was on Feb. 11, and she would meet with Bernadette a total of 18 times through July 16 of that year. On Feb. 11, Bernadette went to gather firewood with her sister and a friend. She saw light coming from a rosebush at a grotto near the river, and in that light, a woman in a white dress appeared, holding a rosary. The woman made the sign of the Cross, so Bernadette knelt, took out her own rosary, and began to pray. After a four-year investigation, the bishop declared the apparitions to be real, and worth believing. In 1866, Bernadette left Lourdes to join a religious order, where she served until her death in 1879. A basilica was built and consecrated at the grotto at Lourdes.

VII. Holy Childhood Sunday (Feb. 12)

On the Sunday Feb. 12, 2023, day the Church has the following aims:

a) To pray for all children in the world so that they should be under the protection and guidance of Child Jesus (hence the name Holy Childhood).

b) To give chance to children to take an active role You can make a difference! in the celebration of the Liturgy of the day so that gradually they should live their baptismal obligations.

c) To contribute money through the ordinary offertory of Sunday service or through other well-organized special collections or a Paper Sundays with the aim of increasing the Sunday collection of that day. This collection is for the Universal Missionary Solidarity Fund for the Pontifical Society of Holy Childhood. The money helps to support needy children in the whole world.

d) To demonstrate solidarity with the whole Church and the whole world in helping children who have not heard the Gospel of salvation and helping those who are suffering because of various reasons.

Thus, every Christian, including children themselves, have to come together in prayer and charity to contribute money towards missionary supporting other children and promoting the well being of other children.

VIII. Memory of St. Valentine (Feb. 14)

Valentines Day

By some accounts, St. Valentine was a Roman priest and physician who suffered martyrdom during the persecution of Christians by the emperor Claudius II Gothicus about 270. He was buried on the Via Flaminia, and Pope Julius I reportedly built a basilica over his grave. Other narratives identify him as the bishop of Terni, Italy, who was martyred, apparently also in Rome, and whose relics were later taken to Terni. It is possible these are different versions of the same original account and refer to only one person.

According to legend, St. Valentine signed a letter “from your Valentine” to his jailer’s daughter, whom he had befriended and healed from blindness. Another common legend states that he defied the emperor’s orders and secretly married couples to spare the husbands from war. He is the patron saint of lovers, epileptics, and beekeepers.

IX. Lent: Time for Transformation (Feb. 22)

Few times in the Christian year call us to reflect on transformational change like Lent leading toward Easter. Springtime is lush with rebirth, new beginnings, and new growth. Too often, however, we want to race to the Easter Resurrection without fully embracing the Lenten process that leads there. Lent reflects the forty days that Jesus wandered in the wilderness — tempted by Satan — in readiness for a ministry destined to end in tragedy. Few of us can relate to the level of sacrifice and commitment that Jesus displayed in his forty days, yet Lent provides us with an opportunity to deepen our spirituality by engaging in regular discipline from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday. The wilderness — the desert days of Lent — is the true path toward spiritual transformation. There is a compelling metaphor that helps us embrace the wilderness and prevents us from racing to Easter. It is the metaphor of the seed. Jesus began his teaching ministry with the parable of the sower (Matthew 13) and referred to seeds and trees, fruit and branches, throughout his ministry. To see the metaphor of Christian growth and spiritual development contained in a seed is to learn valuable lessons about change and transformation. Receive these six lessons from the seed as six weekly devotionals for this Lenten season. Incorporate them into your daily meditations so that they might grow to full bloom in your heart.

Three Timeless Practices of Lent: Praying, Fasting, Almsgiving

a) Fasting: Fast from watching television one night each week so that you can spend time on a Lenten practice, such as praying, reading the Bible and serving others. Fast from one movie during Lent and give the money and the time in service to others. Fast from using foul language and put-downs and start affirming the good in other people. Fast from buying new things like clothes, music, magazines, or jewelry and make a donation... Fast from spending money on entertainment and make a donation of time or money that serves others. Fast from holding resentments and start practicing forgiveness. Fast from gossiping or being dishonest and start the practice of always being truthful and honest. Fast from a favorite snack food or drink and set aside the money you would have spent to donate to a special charity. Fast from being angry or upset with people who have hurt or offended you, and pray for the courage to forgive them. Fast from feeling guilty and angry at yourself for things you have done wrong, instead remember God's great love for you.

b) Praying: Pray for a forgiving heart and ask the people you have hurt to forgive you. Participate in Ash Wednesday services with your family. Participate in the Stations of the Cross during Lent. Participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent. Rent the video, The Prince of Egypt. Watch the video and read the story of Moses from the Book of Exodus, chapters 2-15. Try to read one chapter each day. Be sure to read the story of the Passover in chapters 12 through 13:22. List three blessings you have been given. Say a prayer to God, giving thanks for the blessings in your life. Pray for the children and families who are homeless, and think about ways you and your family might help them.

c) Serving/Almsgiving: Show an act of kindness to each family member today. Show an act of kindness to a friend and to someone who is difficult to like. Together with your family, spend time serving others during Lent. Work at a soup kitchen or homeless shelter. Visit elderly people who are in nursing homes or are shut-ins. Bring food or clothing to the parish or community food pantry, food bank, or homeless shelter. Do someone else's chores one day this week. Donate a new item of children's clothing to the local homeless shelter or clothing center. Go through your closet and find some clothes in good shape to give away to other children who are in need of clothes. Write a letter or create a card for someone who is sick or might be lonely. Buy a can of food to give to a food bank or homeless shelter. Talk with your family about eating one simple meal each week of Lent and putting the money you save in the Operation Rice Bowl box or giving the money to a soup kitchen or homeless shelter.

9. NEWS from WADES: Celebration of Rangoli coupled with Kite Flying

On the occasion of Sankranthi and Pongal festival was celebrated at Saint Mother Theresa school Choppadandi, Karimnagar district. The School organized Rangoli competition for the girls and kite festival for the boys on 12th January 2023. Rangoli is an ancient art and timeless tradition that is followed all over India. The word Rangoli is said to have been derived from the words “rang” and “aavelli” which refers to a row of colours. Kite flying symbolizes India’s free spirit.

Saint Mother Theresa school students enthusiastically celebrated in Rangoli and kite competition. It is a great opportunity for all the students to appreciate and feel pride in one’s own culture. In taking part and celebrating such events enriches and helps the students to develop a sense of unity and harmony among the different cultures and traditions in our country. The chief guest of the function was Mrs & Mr. Sowjanya Vinay Kumar, Chairperson-ZPTC, Karimnagar. She appreciated the efforts of Mother Theresa School for carrying the cultural values embedded in Indian festivals. She was overwhelmed with the skills and talents of aesthetic creativity and innovation exhibited by the children. She requested the school to continue to imbibe such skills and talents amongst the children who are the future of the country. The winners were awarded with the prizes on this occasion. Member of MPTC, representatives of District Social Welfare too graced the occasion and encouraged. The lecturers of the Government junior college were the judges for the competitions. The parents of the children and the children themselves were the highlights of the program. The parents expressed happiness and gratitude for organizing such events in the school which was first of its kind in the school.

Fr. N. Vinod, H.M & Correspondent
St. Mother Teresa School, Choppadandi
